

8. Wisdom is a discipline that can be learned, especially if we have ears to hear and eyes to see. How does this passage help us to realize that the wisdom of God is evident in everything we see and experience?
9. What assurance, or promise is given in verse 33?

Making It Personal

1. What are some of the practical ways you can begin to incorporate this study into your life? (Remember last week we said that wisdom needs to be integrated and then applied).
2. How have you understood the “fear of God” prior to this study?
3. How do these verses challenge our contemporary values or lifestyle?

Looking Ahead

This Week's Message

We learned that wisdom is attainable if someone is willing to invest himself or herself in what it takes to accumulate it. The ability to be teachable is one key area. In this message we look at three character types that serve as a warning of what can happen when we are unwilling to be taught the fear of the Lord.

Study

Read Proverbs 1:20-33

1. As a review, what was a key takeaway for you from last week's study?
2. Was there a key point from the message that you would like to discuss, or expand upon?
3. Why is wisdom personified in this passage as a "woman shouting in the streets?" What does this teach us about the practical aspects of wisdom?
4. Fill in the blanks from the message:
_____ determines _____.
_____ determines _____.

Take a few moments to discuss how you have experienced this in your own life, whether personally, or with someone you know.
5. What are the 3 character types mentioned in the passage and how were they explained in the message? Take time to expand on each.
  - a. _____.
  - b. _____.
  - c. _____.
6. How does the "fear of the Lord" become a major theme in this section?
7. What are the consequences for those who do not fear God? How does this passage present what will become inevitable to those who refuse to fear God?
