

8. What promise is given in verse 33? Is it natural for us to accept the promise without question?

9. What does verse 34 teach us about the reality of worrying? Does it imply that Jesus gives some allowance for it?

Making It Personal

1. List two practical ways you can begin to incorporate this study into your life?

2. Which “What If” questions cause you to worry needlessly and cause you to stumble in your walk with Jesus?

Is This Going Anywhere?
What If – Part 2

This Week's Message

What if life were nothing more than a test preparing us for the final exam? What questions would be the most important to have answered and how differently would we invest our time and priorities? In this message we study the answer that Jesus gives to one of the most important "What If" question we could ever ask.

Study

This study is based on Matthew 6:25-34. Please read the passage before beginning this study.

1. What was the one thing that stood out the most for you from last week's study? Why?
2. What were the two important "life" questions given in the message? Expand on the significance of each.
 - a. _____?
 - b. _____?

3. What is the nature, or type of "worrying" described in this passage?
4. How are unbelievers described in this passage? What are the implications for believers?
5. What were the four points given in the message about worry? Discuss each.
 - a. _____.
 - b. _____.
 - c. _____.
 - d. _____.
6. Verse 33 is the high point of this section. Why would Jesus use this verse in the context of worry?
7. How are we to understand the phrase; Seek the Kingdom of God? Describe practical ways we can achieve it.
