

Why Do Bad Things Happen to Good People?

Quandary – Part 3

7. What choices does Habakkuk make in spite of the revelation he's been given (beyond those in the previous question)? How does his example inform us about the kind of choices we need to make?

8. What lessons concerning the nature of faith are most prominent in the Book of Habakkuk? Is this the kind of faith that is typically espoused by the culture at large?

9. Was there something from the message not covered by this study that you want to mention or discuss?

Response – Making it Practical

1. How can we build into our lives the truths in this portion of Scripture?

2. What do you believe God wants you to do this week as a result of this study?

Life Group Study Notes

Life is not fair, even though we would love it to be. It becomes particularly difficult when we look to God to level the playing field and by all appearances nothing happens.

Life can be viewed through so many different lenses and you can hear a variety of perspectives on the same event, but only one allows us to view the events of life with purpose and hope.

Study – Discovering What the Bible Says?

1. What was the one key takeaway from last week's study?
2. In chapter 2 of Habakkuk, six accusations (or “woes”) are given that God will use against Babylon to judge them. What are they?
 - a. _____ (2:4-5)
 - b. _____ (2:6-8)
 - c. _____ (2:9-11)
 - d. _____ (2:12-14)

e. _____ (2:15-17)

f. _____ (2:18-20)

Read Habakkuk 3:1-19

3. What is unique about the genre of chapter 3? (See the superscription in the NLT and the end of verse 19)
4. What characteristic of God does the prophet appeal to?
5. How does chapter 3 illustrate God as the Divine Warrior?
6. What are the three “I will’s” expressed by Habakkuk?
 - a. I will _____ (3:16)
 - b. I will _____ (3:18)
 - c. I will _____ (3:18)