

7. What was the main point given concerning the way we should view relationships? Discuss its merits.

When it comes to relationships, _____

8. Take time to discuss the ways in which our relational health impacts our walk with Christ?

9. Is there something from the message/interview you want to discuss that is not included here as part of the study?

Response – Making it Practical

1. What is the most difficult relationship in your life right now? Why?
2. What do you believe God wants you to do this week as a result of this study?

You can access more messages on our sermon page at www.villagegreen church.com.

We're also on Facebook and iTunes.
You can also check out the Pastor's Corner on our website or Jon's blog at jkorkidakis.com.

Sermon Notes

Life Group Study Notes

We have been created and wired for relationship. Not just with others but with God as well.

Though we all acknowledge the need for vital relationships, both personally and spiritually, connecting is not always easy.

In this installment we look at relationships as taught in Scripture and how they form the basis for abundant living.

Study – Discovering What the Bible Says?

1. What is one nugget from last week's study?

2. What do you consider to be the most vital ingredient for healthy relationships?

3. What phobia was mentioned in the message and how does it relate to the way God has wired us for relationships?

4. What are the two realities mentioned that predominately affect our spiritual vitality?

a. _____

b. _____

5. What are the two biblical dimensions that relationships are built upon?

a. _____

b. _____

6. What was presented in the message about God's love and how it relates to our relational well-being? Do you agree or disagree? Why?