Life Group Study Notes

---

What's wrong with wanting what others have? How does this simple desire awaken in us an ungodly discontent?

In this opening message, we look at the tenth and last commandment, and find how it stands in a unique and separate place from rest.

Study – Discovering What the Bible Says?

Study Based on Exodus 20:17

1. As a starting point, read the theme verses (Romans 5:20-21), and relate them to what you presently know about the Ten Commandments?
2. What was new to you from the introductory part of the message about the Ten Commandments?
3. What was the definition of coveting given in the message?

Read Romans 7:7-14

4. How does this passage further clarify the theme verses for this series? How do these verses negate the view that all we have to do in life is be good?
5. What is unique about the tenth commandment?
6. Is desire wrong? What was presented in the message?
7. To counter our desire to covet we need to grow a heart of contentment. What 3 points were given as definitions?
  - a. The ability to _____
  - b. The ability to _____
  - c. The ability to _____
8. Discuss the 5 points given for growing a heart of contentment.
