

7. What right does this commandment protect?
8. Why is this such an uphill battle culturally, especially when we consider the amount of relational hurt involved?
9. Is there something from the message you want to discuss that is not included here as part of the study?

Response – Making it Practical

1. Did this study teach you anything new about the biblical nature of marriage?
2. What is the one lesson from this study that you can implement into your life today?

Sermon Notes

You can access more messages on our sermon page at www.villagegreen church.com.

We're also on Facebook and iTunes.
You can also check out the Pastor's Corner on our website.

Life Group Study Notes

Marriage, few institutions are as attacked or maligned. Yet the real danger does not come from the outside, but from within. Why does God place so much on protecting and preserving marriage? Is there something greater at stake?

In this message, we look at the seventh commandment, and discover how it helps to guard and defend a key area of our lives – those we claim to love.

Study – Discovering What the Bible Says?

Study Based on Exodus 20:14

1. What was the major takeaway for you from last week's study?
2. What are your thoughts concerning this recent observation by a sex psychotherapist. Monogamy was once defined as being faithful to one person for life but today it means being faithful to one person at a time.
3. Is marriage a biblical institution or a political one? What difference does it make?

4. What are the two "C's" of biblical marriage? Take time to define both.

a. _____

b. _____

5. What are the two arenas of love presented in the message?

a. _____

b. _____

6. A Game Plan – Some Suggestions

a. Never think, "_____."

b. Never fight _____.

c. Never forget _____.

d. Never ignore _____.

e. Never weaponize _____.

f. Never ignore _____.