

7. Paul teaches a progression in this passage. He begins by stating that a false view of God leads to false thinking. What are the next two false views?
8. How do we understand the first two commandments in light of Jesus (see John 10:30; 14:8-11). In fact, how do we understand the Ten Commandments in light of the New Testament?
9. Is there something from the message you want to discuss that is not included here as part of the study?

Response – Making it Practical

1. Did this series give you any new insights into the importance of these commandments for your own life?
2. What is one practical change you are making as a result of this series?

Life Group Study Notes

Worship is a human activity, a practice that is exercised by everyone regardless of belief. The essential question is what do you worship? The object of our worship frames our entire existence, either in true worship or fruitless idolatry.

In this concluding message, we are reminded that there is only one God, and we're not him. Embracing this truth leads to true freedom and a vital relationship with our heavenly Father.

Study – Discovering What the Bible Says?

Study Based on Exodus 20:2-6

1. What was the major takeaway for you from last week's study?
2. What is the significance of the Passover for understanding the background and foundation for the Ten Commandments?

Therefore, the Ten Commandments are a _____

3. What were the remaining points given in the message? Take time to expand and discuss each.

a. God deserves _____

b. Do not attempt to _____

c. Make God the _____

4. How does adherence to these commandments, affect the way that we obey the remaining eight?

5. If you were to go to a street corner and ask people about the Ten Commandments, is it more likely they will remember-if at all-the commandments that pertain to God's rights (no other god, no idols etc.), or those related to our rights (do not steal, covet, murder etc.)? Why?

Read Romans 1:18-25

6. How does this passage relate to the first two commandments and what does it tell us about the nature of God's revelation?
