What We've Learned
Village Green Community Church

Life Group Study Notes

There is a rabbinical proverb that says a mother is only as happy as her saddest child. On this day that celebrates mom, let's take time to honour her, as well as the spiritual mom's and relationships that make our lives better.

In light of this day and what it celebrates, the message we share will hopefully encourage and inspire you in your relationship with Jesus Christ and the significant people in your life.

Study – Discovering What the Bible Says?

1. Is Mother's Day important to you? Why or why not?
2. Who or what has had the greatest influence on you concerning the way you view: 1) faith, 2) yourself in relation to God?
3. How did the opening illustration challenge you on your understanding of serving?
4. Verses 3-5 remind us that life is essentially a spiritual battle. Comment on how this should frame the way we see life, especially the difficulties.
5. What does Paul say about authority? What should it produce?
6. What does this chapter teach concerning pride and boasting?
7. The message revolved around verses 10-12. Name the 4 intruders when we base our lives on _____
 - a. _____ (see Psalm 118:4-6)
 - b. _____ (see Colossians 2:6-10)
 - c. _____ (see Proverbs 14:26-27)

Read 2 Corinthians 10:1-18

In this chapter, Paul is defending himself as an apostle and addressing false teachers who have come into the Corinthian church with an anti-Gospel message.
