Life Group Study Notes

Just before His death and resurrection, Jesus met with His disciples for the passover meal. But before they ate, Jesus did something unforgettable, He washed their dirty feet.

In this one simple act, Jesus reveals to us the most powerful tool of influence anyone or any organization has: the power of serving others.

Study – Discovering What the Bible Says?

1. Take some time as you begin your study together and talk through the four habits that make us better as a church. How has this sermon series challenged you?
2. Read Galatians 5:13. How does Jesus model this verse in his life and ministry?
3. Serving others will always cost something. What anxieties do you have personally when you think of embracing the habit of truly serving the needs of others?
