Walk This Way – Part 5

1 Peter 3:13-17

Life Group Study Notes

Study based on 1 Peter 3:13-17 – May 21, 2017

Acting like a Christian is much easier than reacting like one. Our responses often convey where we struggle most in our faith and beliefs.

Nowhere is it truer than when we are suffering. Its in these moments that the essence of what we believe becomes the compass for how we live.

In this message we look at a passage that guides us in our responses to life's struggles, and how it will convey the one characteristic that makes others stand up and take notice.

Study – Discovering What the Bible Says

1. What is one thing that stood out for you from last week's study?
2. What label was presented in the message and what is unique about the way it's used in the Bible? (See Hebrews 10:23; 11:1)

Read 1 Peter 3:13-17 (parallel found in Colossians 4:5-6)

3. What makes the context of this passage so interesting (In other words, what situation or life circumstance prompts Peter to write this section)?
4. What were the 4 "hope killers" presented in the message?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
 - d. _____
5. What are the hallmarks of a person who "worships Christ as Lord of their life?" (vs. 15)
6. Verses 16-17 give practical instructions on how to influence rather than irritate when asked about our hope in Christ?
 - a. _____ (1 Peter 3:15; Prov 15:1; 25:15; Matt 11:29-30; 2 Tim 2:24-25)
Never confuse _____ with _____
