Luke 1:67-79 NLT

⁷¹ Now we will be saved from our enemies and from all who hate us.

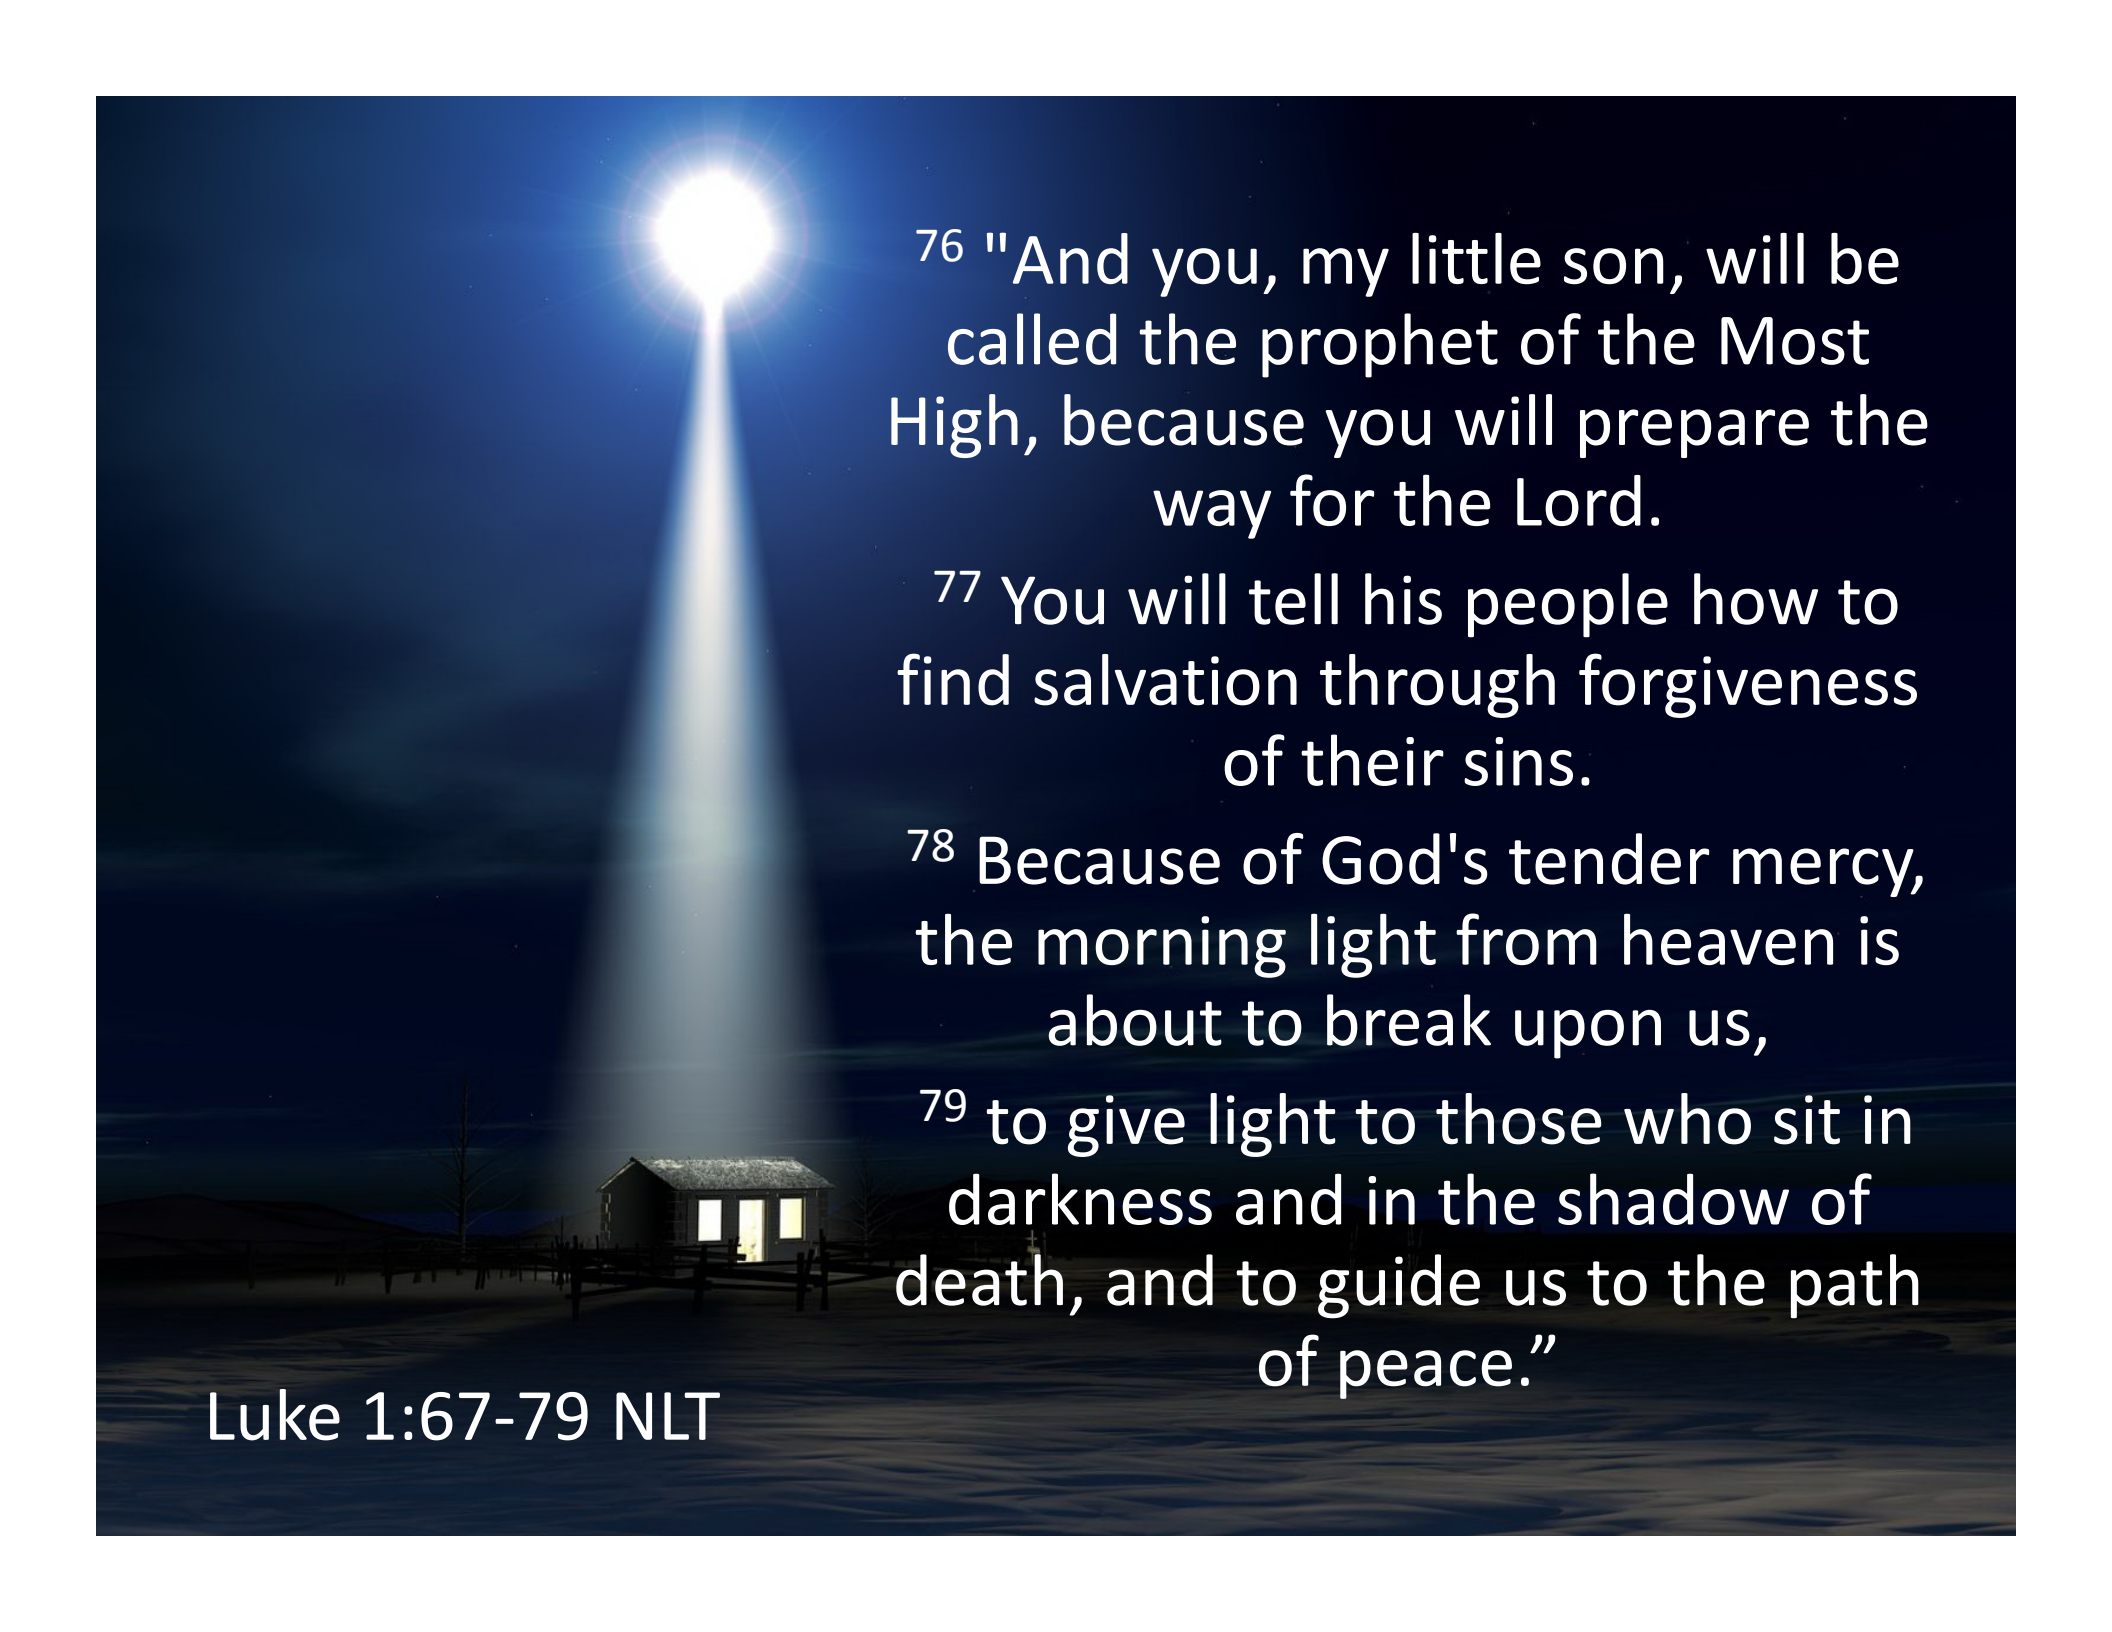

⁷² He has been merciful to our ancestors by remembering his sacred covenant--

⁷³ the covenant he swore with an oath to our ancestor Abraham.

⁷⁴ We have been rescued from our enemies so we can serve God without fear,

⁷⁵ in holiness and righteousness for as long as we live.

Luke 1:67-79 NLT

⁷⁶ "And you, my little son, will be called the prophet of the Most High, because you will prepare the way for the Lord.

⁷⁸ Because of God's tender mercy, the morning light from heaven is about to break upon us,

⁷⁹ to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, and to guide us to the path of peace."

Luke 1:67-79 NLT

The Pursuit of Peace – 4 General Paths

A night scene with a bright light source in the sky casting a beam of light onto a small house in a snowy landscape. The light source is a bright, glowing orb in the upper left, with a thick, white beam of light extending downwards to illuminate a small, simple house with a gabled roof. The house has three windows that are lit from within, casting a warm yellow glow. The house is surrounded by a wooden fence and stands in a vast, flat, snow-covered field. In the background, there are dark, silhouetted hills under a dark blue night sky. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.
